1. Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-38 with traverse is acknowledged.

It is also noted that the elected claims are not considered to be allowable, as indicated below. However, applicant may wish to cancel the non-elected claims in applicant's next response or in a subsequent response, in order to obviate the need for an additional office action in the event any such response places the elected claims in condition for allowance.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 30-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b or e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Bassett et al, Hanson or Lazzara et al, all cited by applicant. Each reference teaches a package that has all of the structural elements of the claims, and that either expressly presents a screw or is inherently capable of presenting a screw, as required by the functional limitations in the claims. Should the device in any of the references be later deemed to be missing an element or feature that is known in the art, such as an additional housing, (note claim 36 and note from the prior art that one housing per se is known), it would have been obvious to provide any of the prior art devices with the missing element for the purpose of increasing the utility of the device.
